FOOT BALL TEAMS FIT FOR A FIGHT

Promise of a Hot Game at Eastlake Park Today.

The last word from the foot ball boys of the high school team that it to play against the Tempe normal school at the park today was that they were in fine condition for the game and that there was but one way to the game's result; that is, they will be on the side with the big score.

However, the boys of the south side team have sent in word to the effect that they have completed final preparations for the sure defeat of the high school team. Now, there's the rub.

Who will win this game about which there has been so much enthusiastic practice and excitement?

Doubtless this will be a game well attended, for the interest aroused by each team is very great. Each school will be at the park this afternoon with colors and with strong throats for college yells. There will be some yell contests between the young ladies of each institution, who will be there good and strong.

During the past week the high school boys have done good practice work each night. They are in excellent shape for their first game. The normal team has been at good daily practice. They have the benefit of one match game already. There are several changes in their line-up.

Due to the league arrangement of a triangular schedule for the season, there will be but the one game between each of the three teams, followed by a fourth game between the two best teams. Today's game is the second of these four games. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

The line-up will be as follows:

High School.	Normal.
CENTER.
Jordan	McComas
RIGHT GUARD.
La Tourette	H. Miller
LEFT GUARD.
Maddox	Webb
RIGHT TACKLE.
Melzer	Meskimons
RIGHT END.
McCarthy	F. Miller
LEFT END.
Wolfel	Corbell
RIGHT HALF BACK.
Irvine	Murphy
LEFT HALF BACK.
Baum	Wilson
QUARTER BACK.
Stoddard	Higley

MEXICAN CLUTCH ON DEAD BODIES

The Difficulty of Getting a Corpse out of the Republic.

Superintendent Lon Hall, of the El Tigre mine, arrived in the city yesterday with the body of his nephew by marriage, W. M. Conn, who was killed in the mine last Tuesday. He had formerly been employed at McCabe.

The body will be taken to Prescott this morning and will then probably be sent to the home of his relatives at Thal. Conn was a promising young man of twenty-four and had been married a year and a half.

He had been at work at the El Tigre only two days when the fatal accident occurred. He had been working about the elevator, across the front of which was a rapidly revolving shaft. There was a collar on the shaft with a set screw. As Conn leaned across the shaft to oil some part of the machinery the head of the screw caught in his clothing and he was twisted to death about the shaft.

The manner in which the body was brought out of the interior of Mexico is mentioned here for the benefit of others who may sometimes have the same sad duty to perform. Its performance is sometimes impossible.

Immediately after the death of Conn, Mr. Hall began preparations to bring that body out for the first twenty-four miles on a stretcher. The judge of that district, which is about 125 miles from the line, was very courteous and obliging, as all the officials there were, but delay was expected further on.

Mr. Hall was provided by the judge with a health certificate and he proceeded to the next district, a few miles distant. There delays began which, if Mr. Hall had permitted to continue would have kept him in the country with the body for a month.

The judge examined the certificate and said it was improperly made out; he consulted what he called the statutes, but which Mr. Hall surmised to be a copy of Jaynes' almanac of the middle of last century. It was, however, a book of statutes of 1851, but the latest the judge had. The certificate was, according to the law of the state, not valid.

Mr. Hall asked him how much money it would take to cure the defect. The judge, referring to the statutes, replied that it would take $100. This was not graft, for Mr. Hall said he believed the judge to be honest. He inquired though if he could go back to the first judge and have the certificate corrected. He was allowed to do so, and Mr. Hall left with the body, but not to go back to the first district. Instead he sought the railway by unfrequented roads, and arriving there had little trouble until he approached the border. He was now among higher officials and he found that they could set the old-time laws aside. At some distance the body was held and General Manager Graham, of the mines, sent down and had it embalmed. It was then easily transferred on a permit from the government, setting aside all ancient laws and regulations.

The advice of Mr. Hall in cases of this kind is that in the first place, an absolutely correct certificate be obtained; that the magistrates of the interior should be given as wide a berth as possible; one should, as soon as he can put himself in touch with higher officials and he will then receive considerate treatment, as would be accorded him in this country.

The El Tigre mine, by the way, is the great property in dispute between the El Tigre company and the Ensenada company, the latter being in possession pending the determination of the contest in the courts.

Speaking of the Yaqui troubles, Mr.
Hall said that though the region in which he lives lies between two hot-beds of Yaqui disturbances, there is nothing going on now. It was not far from the El Tigre that the Maxwell party was murdered last winter.

works will note its removal from Third and E. Washington streets to 38 South Center, opposite Commercial hotel.

Because no man knows people by their looks.

Between times we are still doing business at the old stand. We've brought more money to Arizona from outside sources than any other firm or concern. We've spent more money than all of them to do it. We pay nearly one-fourth of the fees that go into the territorial treasury from corporations we filed. 6 companies yesterday and sold 7 copies of
